Dreamless

Mobilize

triggers fast, distracting rhythm plays checks and balances, the easy life finish last on odds they'd never lay uneasy silences, the easy life some say history's best made secretly these green bones may break maybe flesh needs new bones anyway nothing shines in your eyes concede my oversight blue light burns bright inside a beautiful disguise sitting back to view the disarray explained to satisfy the easy life abreaction to the senseless fray painful questions for the easy life every minute's test of our possessions leaves us with obsession that pushes the extreme sleep in the nation's arms is dreamless seamless information soothes as they constrict clinging to the truth of doctrine so no shots are fired blindly
