

Hey

The Movieline

Hey, I guess I'll figure it out the reasons why things went the way they did
and why we can't accept it We'd Fall asleep, but not before we exorcised the evil things that everyone hides

We would lie there in my bed,
Do you remember all those nights we never slept no clothes, sweaty doing all those things I never thought I'd do and i did them with you and hey, don't feel bad.
No one can ever take away the boardwalk trips or the subways

I think we grew up Past the hang-ups and the evil stares the fuck you too's and i don't care
We would lie there in my bed,
Do you remember all those nights we never slept
no clothes, sweaty doing all those things I never thought I'd do and i did them with you Hey, I guess I'll figure it out
the reasons why things went the way they did
and why we can't accept it
We'd Fall asleep, but not before we exorcised the evil things that everyone
hides

We would lie there in my bed,
Do you remember all those nights we never slept And even though we brought it crashing to an end, I loved it all
and now I love my friend I loved it all,
I love the girl,
I love my friend.
