

Desperate Now

Stabbing Westward

I keep breaking all the promises
That I keep making to myself
You'd think by now that I'd be over this
Instead I'm feeling sorry for myself So why does everything seem desperate now
I should be feeling so alive
But it feels like something's missing
Something's wrong somehow
It feels like something deep inside has died So why do I feel desperate now?
Why do I feel like dying?
Why do I feel desperate now?
Why do I feel desperate now? I keep breaking all the promises
That I keep making to myself
But promises mean nothing to me anymore
Circling the drain, spiraling to hell So why do I feel desperate now?
Why do I feel like dying?
Why do I feel desperate now?
Why do I feel desperate now?
