

Beautifully Shining

Shamel Shiloh

Millennium â€“ itâ€™s simply a word derived from Latin that means â€œone thousand years.â€• Yet this simple word with its simple meaning becomes something much more in the context of the Millennial Kingdom, or the Millennial Reign of Christ.

I want Christ to reign in my life forever â€“ so Iâ€™m spittin new rhymes â€“ let's keep it clear!

Clear brain permit high speed communication jet sensation Substantial fat on any station
Skillful clever they stunned yo what is it
Verbally wizards dropping like that last blizzard
Beautifully shining formulated with pure proof
Mathematical logistics statistic tell the truth tell the world Iâ€™m through -yo they mind is on close Expand my dome like elastic leave â€™em stuck in a pose
Naturally grow some kids donâ€™t even think before the speak
But I be Shamel Shiloh uniquely freaking beats
No check it â€“ he magnetic imperial beâ€™s lyrical
Truth reigns supreme above high level superior
Peep the imperial dope material
Blah â€“ brothersâ€™ wild - following a style thatâ€™s foul
Look lustin, killings, nine millings, and stealing
Loveâ€™s gonna getcha all need spiritual healing

Wake up you need to rethink your rhymes and
Climbing son we beautifully shining
Behold the throne of the Lamb yo its times and Millennial Kingdom aint no crimes and

Holy forgiven for ever sin I do or ever did
Listen kids Iâ€™m longer filthy like the pig
Purified the body prayed and turned in the shooty
Washed off the dirt â€“ separated from the party
Say the Holy Spirit done it did it Iâ€™m acquitted
Turned away from the world now my lights been litted
Watch it shine glitter â€“ essential natures been exalted Iâ€™m glad I caught it â€“ the heathen style been halted
Look Godâ€™s my protection the bible my sword
Jesus Christ is Lord we come together like cords
Umbilical keeps it biblical still lyrical
Yes I gave my life do you believe in miracles

And all my peeps know my spiritual vision
Meditating on the teachings suffering for the prison
Risen â€“ wear you helmet the hope of salvation
My armor is love and faith spread it to the nation

Wake up you need to rethink your rhymes and
Climbing son we beautifully shining
Behold the throne of the Lamb yo its times and Millennial Kingdom aint no crimes and

I be the salt of the earth never losing my flavor
Shining my light of men you none believers and neighbors
This tongue my save ya check the difference in my actions
After cracking mad fortyâ€™s I found no satisfaction
But I stays in fashion and all my gear will come to pass
For forty days and forty nights ignored the bread with the fast
Words will last true heads one true God
Think you hard his ammunition is a large
Blessed those who hate me for they really know they wrong
Nothing to please man am I wrong check this song
Life is more then clothing cloth that is woven
What the deal seems temptation just dove in Sparkin lâ€™s sexing raw dog without a care
Acting on murderous thoughts and they swear
Its like the blind leading the blind Christ works young lion
Wake up now before some heads be frying

Wake up you need to rethink your rhymes and
Climbing son we beautifully shining
Behold the throne of the Lamb yo its times and Millennial Kingdom aint no crimes and
