

Depend On You

Deanna Nicole

Broken glass lies on the bedroom floor

A broken dream lies in my head

I was counting on a big surprise

But I got a big surprise insteadI didn't know people could change

So fast I didn't see the game you played

Now the morning finds me somewhere

In the past hanging on the promises we madeI know that life is just a big and restless ocean

With the wind and the water always changin' view

And I've always been the kind didn't count on much

But I thought I could depend on you, yeahWeatherman says it's gonna rain today

And yes, I believe, he's right

My face is feeling just a little bit wet

With a big storm coming through tonightI know that life is just a big and restless ocean

With the wind and the water always changin' view

And I've always been the kind didn't count on much

But I thought I could depend on you, yeah
