

Backyard

Of Monsters and Men

I live a life of love
Hold me down hold me down
I live a life of letting go Under a starlit night
I wrap myself in a thin sheet of ice
Out there the stars are crystalized Find me in the backyard
Find me in the backyard
In the dark Find me in the backyard
Find me in the backyard Because you colour me clear
Now what are you waiting for
Yeah you colour me clear
Now what are you waiting for See how my mountains turn
From blue to black, from white to gray
I'm a bird, and a broken one The drops illuminate
And evaporate into a neon lake
I'm a beast, and a vicious one Find me in the backyard
Find me in the backyard
In the dark Find me in the backyard
Find me in the backyard Because you colour me clear
Now what are you waiting for
Yeah you colour me clear
Now what are you waiting for
