Light My Way

Fighting Instinct

Ill tell You everything I am
Im lost and lonely
Im afraid of not knowing
When Ive lost my wayAnd now Im standing still
And I can feel You getting closer
I can feel Your love upon me
Will You light my wayWill You light my way
So I can see the path
Beyond the light of day
Will I ever be the same
Will You light my wayA fear of losing
What Ive gained
Will You help me let it go
Let it goGiving everything I have
I part with nothing that is mine
What does this cost outweigh the cure
Is it more than worth the prizeWill You light my way
So I can see the path
Beyond the light of day
Will I ever be the same
Will You light my wayI surrender all
And I seek Your faceWill You light the way
You can light the word
As long as Youre in it
As Youre in itWill You light my way
So I can see the path
Beyond the light of day
Will I ever be the same
Will You light my way, way
