

Swan Lake

Dark Moor

[Chorus I]

Her soul will be a swan

Until

She feels

The love of nobleman

Forever her soul will be a swan

Until

She feels

The love of noble...In swan lake

In swan lake

In swan lake

In swan lake Tired to ride in the royal hunt

To listen sweet lies that I am wont

I am the prince!

The future king!

Boomed in my head my mother's voice

Take to wife! should be my choice

Oh, cruel fate!

That my soul hate! To forget all I fled into the woods

Searching preys goods

Then I saw the lake

Lost in the deep forest

And its water chorused

An odd melody Swans of nice white feather on the dusk

Swam in a dance in harmonious masque

Hunter I am!

My bow was prepared [Bridge]

But her beauty was shown me in the depth

Spouting, silent, from the lake

And her pale look kept a sad poem

Lost in despair

Dragged into the warlock's lair

In the shadows [Chorus I]

Her soul will be a swan

Until

She feels

The love of nobleman

Forever her soul will be a swan

Until

She feels
The love of noble...Like a night tide
Together we cried
Our lips sealed its secrets way
And my doubts died
But when came the dawn
My dream sank covered by dark waters[Bridge]
But her beauty was shown me in the depth
Spouting, silent, from the lake
And her pale look kept a sad poem
Lost in despair
Dragged into the warlock's lair
In the shadows[Chorus I]
Her soul will be a swan
Until
She feels
The love of nobleman
Forever her soul will be a swan
Until
She feels
The love of nobleman[Chorus II]
My princess's tears fall in the moonglade
The lake is afraid
The night shows the spell
Then I can feel my heart run into my chest
Now I know my quest
In the hell of the storm
I'll break her swan-form
So inside the waves
We will find our graves
But the warlock's curse will be broken[Bridge]
But her beauty was shown me in the depth
Spouting, silent, from the lake
And her pale look kept a sad poem
Lost in despair
Dragged into the warlock's lair
In the shadows[Chorus I]
Her soul will be a swan
Until
She feels
The love of nobleman
Forever her soul will be a swan
Until
She feels
The love of nobleman[Chorus II]

My princess's tears fall in the moonglade
The lake is afraid
The night shows the spell
Then I can feel my heart run into my chest
Now I know my quest
In the hell of the storm
I'll break her swan-form
So inside the waves
We will find our graves
But the warlock's curse will be broken
The Rothboart's curse will be brokenThe Rothboart's curse broken...
The Rothboart's curse broken...
The Rothboart's curse broken...
The Rothboart's curse broken...[Chorus III]
Our spirits will be free
Will fly
The sky
Over the green lake's trees
Forever our spirits will be free
Will fly
The sky
Over the green lake's trees
Remember us in the stars
Remember us in the stars
