

Nauticus (Drifting)

Pain of Salvation

Music, lyric and arrangements by Daniel Gildenlöw

Oh Lord

Won't you hear a sinner's prayer

Oh Lord Oh Lord

Oh Lord

Won't you help me find the way

When I'm lost and lead astray

Oh Lord Mmm... Oh Lord

Oh Lord

Won't you help me to stay humble

Oh Lord Oh Lord

Oh Lord

Won't you help me be an ocean

Help me bend to stay unbroken

Oh Lord Mmm... Save me, I'm drifting

Help me, I'm drifting Oh Lord...

Oh Lord...

Oh Lord Mr. Money:

- OK alright baby, the love of my life Girl:

- Are you referring to me... or the car? Mr. Money:

- Oh, please honey, what do you think?

- Now, Cindy... Girl:

- Sandra Mr Money:

- Yeah, of course. Now, as I see it, we've got two natural choices here. So, what do you say? Either I drive and you can give me some good head while I'm watching the road... Girl:

- What? Mr. Money:

- Well, somebody's gotta watch the road honey...

- ...or... YOU can drive this baby

- ...oh, but only if you're good at handling the stick of course... Girl:

- But... this is an automatic? Mr. Money:

- ...rrrrright! Girl:

- Is that some sort of sick joke? Mr. Money:

- What? Girl:

- ... "natural choices" my ass! Mr. Money:

- Well, that's a third choice I didn't think about... Girl:

- You son of a...! Mr. Money:

- Take it easy baby!

- No sweat... it was only a joke, alright? Girl:

- Alright Mr. Money:

- ... I mean, of COURSE I was joking...
- ... I would NEVER let you drive my car!CLUE: pay attention to the radio...
