

Cool Papa Bell

Paul Simon

It turns out to be
A great thing for me
I don't worry (And?)
I don't think (Because?)
It's not my job to worry or to think I'm more like:
"Everyday I'm here I'm grateful" and that's the gist of it
Now you may call that a bogus, bullshit, new-age point of view,
But check out my tattoo
Says: wall-to-wall fun
Does everyone know everyone,
Mr. Wall-to-wall fun? Well, well, well,
And Cool Papa Bell,
The fastest man on Earth did dwell as Cool Papa Bell Motherfucker.
Ugly word
Ubiquitous and often heard
As a substitute for someone's christian name, and I think "Yeah, the word is ugly... All the same."
Ugly got a chase to make,
It's not like every rodent gets a birthday cake
No it's "you're a chipmunk, how cute its that?"
But you, you motherfucker, are a filthy rat And well, well, well,
Is it true Papa Bell,
That the beauties go to heaven
And the ugly go to hell,
Cool Papa Bell? Have you all heard the news:
"HEAVEN FINALLY FOUND"?
Okay, it's six trillion light years away
But we're all gonna get there someday
Yeah, we're all gonna get there some way But, but not you.
You stay and explain the suffering,
And the pain you caused
And the thrill you feel when evil dreams come true... Check out my tattoo!
It says "Wall-to-wall fun"
Does everyone know everyone,
Mr. Wall-to-wall fun? Well, well, well,
And Cool Papa Bell,
The fastest man on Earth did dwell as

Cool Papa Bell And you're never gonna stop (X8)
