

OK

Hollysiz

You always dream of peaceful life
A little house and a smiley wife
You've changed for good
No one can blow your mind
But you cheat and you lie and
You're out every night again You always say I'm your biggest pride
When comes the sun you're by my side
You crawl under the bed, and denied
But you cheat and you lie and
You're out every night again
Ok... Ok... Get away I try, I try to never answer your calls
I try to play the girl who can live alone
I've tried to kick you out and dump you off twice
But you cheat and you lie and
You're out every night again
The stables empty but my pain is dry
The proud stallion's out for a ride
Spring will appear, all the bees will fly
But the flowers will fade, you'll be back
And I'll be your maid Ok... Ok... Get away
