

Where the Light Shows

Alman Nusrat

A million stories in this quarry
A million scars i sew
So sweet like honey ain't that funny
How i've come to know
A thousand wishes and all these riches
The useless love that flows to all my demons
All these reasons all that i've come to show
Oh, in the darkness that i confide
In the single light that shines
Winning every single fight inside me
I, feel it right behind my eyes
As a lie awake at night
Every single night i cry..

For a million reasons why
I never even tried
All i've come to know
Is to rise from whats below
We reap just what we sow
So now its time to go
From where the darkness comes
to where the light shows

**Now its time to go
From where the darkness comes
To where the light shows

I find my focus when i see this
I'm letting go of my soul
Its in your hands now
Always was
And i've got you, to hold
I know my falling
Is to you, a reason to Come home
I'll pack my bags
And take your love
I'll bury it deep

Within my bones

Oh,in the darkness i confide
In a single light that i shines
Winning every single fight inside me
I,feel it right behind my eyes
As i lie awake at night
Every single night i cry..

For a million reasons why
I never even tried
All i've come to know
We reap just what we sow

~ Repeat ** ~

i find my focus when i see this
Always was
