

Anything You Want

Jason Mraz

Oh, it's love for you It's what I got to give, it's what I got to give
It's what I got to give, it's what I got Courage is a triumph of the soul
I know where I wanna walk, I know where I wanna go
Come put your hand in mine
Everybody's welcome Music is what God wants us to do
Sing a song for me and I'll sing a song for you
When we put our voices together
We create the harmony And we bring you some love, a love, a love
Love, a love, a love, love, a love, a love, love, a love, love Yeah, you can sing if you want to
It's love, a love, a love, love, a love, a love
Love, a love, a love, la-la-love
Yeah, now we got you All I want to share with you is all my love
It's all I really care to do Champion the idea of one love
All people the same, one beautiful race
Making a home of this beautiful place
And be grateful for the precious gifts of life
Sunshine and water, food from the greatest giver Anything you want can be yours at any time
Anything you want can be yours at any time It's love, a love, a love, love, a love, a love
Love, a love, a love, love, a love, a love
Sing out the words, sing out the words
It's love, a love, a love, love, a love, a love
Love, a love, a love, la-la-love Yeah, now we know All I want to share with you is all my love
It's all I really care to do
'Cause anything you want can be yours at any time
All I want to share with you is all my love
It's all I really care to do
Anything you want can be yours at any time Anything you want, anything you want
Anything you want
Anything you want can be yours at any time
