

No Good for You

Meghan Trainor

I miss that happy friend that I had
You've been acting so sad
Won't you come back, yeah yeah You never take the time when you cuss some more
Always with your new boy
But he ain't all that (No no)
But you don't know yet Oh his kiss is soft and sweet
He swept you off your feet
He's no good for you
He's no good for you And sure he's worth a lot of gold
But you're better than you know
He's no good for you
He's no good for you, hey That boy's no good for you
You're way too good for him
That boy's no good for you, for you
Whoa whoa whoa
No he no good, he no good for you
Whoa whoa whoa
No he no good, he no good for you He drives those fancy cars that you like
But he doesn't call you at night
And tells you he loves you
He's thinking of you
No you can't take him home for the holidays
Better keep him away
He's such a soldier
Everyone will say that His kiss is soft and sweet
He swept you off your feet
He's no good for you
He's no good for you And sure he's worth a lot of gold
But you're better than you know
He's no good for you
He's no good for you, hey That boy's no good for you
You're way too good for him
That boy's no good for you, for you
Whoa whoa whoa
No he no good, he no good for you
Whoa whoa whoa
No he no good, he no good for you Won't you take it from a friend
That boy is not a gentleman
And you'll find out soon enough

What you're feeling it ain't love
'Cause he called me yesterday
And he asked me on a date
Tried to play you like a fool
And that's why I'm calling you His kiss is soft and sweet
And he swept you off your feet
But he's no good for you
He's no good for you And I'm sure he's worth a lot of gold
But you're better than you know (Better babe)
He's no good for you (Better babe), oh His kiss is soft and sweet
And he swept you off your feet
He's no good for you
He's no good for you And I'm sure he's worth a lot of gold
But you're better than you know
He's no good for you
He's no good for you, hey That boy's no good for you
You're way too good for him
That boy's no good for you, for you (No good, no good)
That boy's no good for you
You're way too good for him
That boy's no good for you, for you, hey
