

Rain

The Butterfly Effect

Restless
Did we fail to start?
Arrested
I've got a broken heart
Broken heart With my eyes wide open
Take me back to the start
With my eyes wide open
I will lay me down in your arms Let it rain down on me
Take me far away from here
And we'll suffer together
In your arms I'll lay me down
Fall into you Reckless
Left us torn apart
Slowly tested
Can't mend your broken heart With my eyes wide open
Lay me down in your arms Suffer forever with me now
