Our Great Divide

Tarja

Dark blue sea, calling me
Songs of waves, keep me safeSky's so deep, there's no end
The moon still asleep, the bed of stars for meHow can I see through your eyes my destiny?
I fall apart, you bleed for me
How can I see through your eyes our worlds collide?
Open your heart, to close our great divideDistant prayers, carved in stone
The silent words they will still be heardHow can I see through your eyes my destiny?
I fall apart, you bleed for me
How can I see through your eyes our worlds collide?
Open your heart, to close our great divideHow can I see through your eyes my destiny?
I fall apart, you bleed for me
So I just float with the tide through the night I pass you by Open my heart, to close our great divide
