

Do Whatcha Gotta Do

Jojo

It's been a minute since you left me
Out here on my own
And I'd never felt this empty
Since I been alone And the silence is louder than Any fight we've ever had before
You don't even know
The time for night to turn to morning Never took this long
And there's nothing to take from me
'Cause you're already gone
Bein' hurt for a while's how I'll get over you So keep callin' me names, babe
Tell everyone I'm crazy
Do whatcha gotta do
To forget bout me and you If it's easier to hate me
Then go on have your way babe
Do whatcha gotta do
To forget bout me and you I can't remember to forget you
Whenever there's another
I accidentally just compare you
But they don't measure up
Every mile that I steer Every song that I hear
Is a memory of you
Please leave me alone
And no matter what Please don't regret all the times you
Pretend you don't see me
It's pathetic I try to despise you
Just like you do with me
Love just don't disappear
Especially when it's true So keep callin' me names, babe
Tell everyone I'm crazy
Do whatcha gotta do
To forget bout me and you If it's easier to hate me
Then go on have your way babe
Do whatcha gotta do
To forget bout me and you Sometimes it takes you feel you've died
To know you really are alive in here
And I'd trade my soul
Just to wake up from This nightmare they all say is my life now
Baby, I don't wanna make it all harder for you
But I love you like crazy if you gotta hate me

Then do what you gotta do
So keep callin' me names, babe
Tell everyone I'm crazy
Do whatcha gotta do
To forget bout me and you
If it's easier to hate me
Then go on have your way babe
Do whatcha gotta do
