Secrets

Eternal

I wanna know about all of your secrets And all that, that you've been keeping Tell me some of your secrets, your innermost thoughts Oh, tell me your secrets I wanna hear every single part Don't hold it back, let it all out I wanna know all about you, don't hide Tell me your secrets I wanna know about all of your secrets And all that, that you've been keeping Oh, tell me your secrets Leave nothing out Tell me one of your secrets Try and tell me in detail that'll remove every single doubt Tell me your secret I wanna know all about it, don't make it up I wanna know about all of your secrets Oh, tell me your secrets And all that, that you've been keeping Tell me all about all of your secrets And all that, that you've been keeping Oh, tell me your secret Sing it to me I wanna remove all doubt my baby Take a look inisie I need to see your heart, your feelings I wanna make it right Take a look inside I wanna remove all doubt, my baby I need to see your heart, my baby I wanna make it right And all that, that you've been keeping I wanna know about all of your secrets [ad lib to fade]
