Mayfield

Augustana

Remember back when seasons don't change, oh baby

Late December winds bringin' pain back to me

And I've been closin' these doors for days, oh baby

The sky is fallin' down on my grave and nowOoh, are we gonna make it?

Ooh, are we gonna make it?

Ooh, are we gonna make it?

Ooh, are we gonna make it?South Pacific's whiskey and sin, now honey These angels got me talkin' again, jump slowly

Gently as the breakin' waves, I'm flyin'

Tide closin' in on my face and nowOoh, are we gonna make it?

Ooh, are we gonna make it?

Ooh, are we gonna make it?

Ooh, are we gonna make it? Yeah, yeahOoh, are we gonna make it? Ooh, are we gonna make it? Woah, are we gonna make it?

Yeah, are we gonna make it?

Woah, are we gonna make it?

Yeah, yeah, are we gonna make it now?
