Thats My Bestfriend

Ec Marv

We say that we just bestfriends but it feels so different, she was there from the beginning way before a nigga started winning, all them other girls who loved me she was the only who didn't. All these hugs & kisses man I swear we too committed, we say that we just bestfriends but it feels so different she was there from the beginning way before a nigga started winning, all them other girls who loved me she was the only who didn't. All these hugs and kisses man I swear we too committed, that's my bestfriend hugs & kisses to my bestfriend X3 That's my best friend she the only one who ain't left me, that's my bestfriend I let her meet my mother, she stay down through the struggle that main reason I love her, all these other girls be trippin but nobody come above her, but when they lifted me she stayed ok talking years not days, that's my bestfriend she stayed when they gave up, before I had my change up, before I had my fame but, that's my bestfriend I might put a ring on her left hand. Now easy boys my bestman look at us & all we flexin, texting led to sexting but girl that none of their business, you kissin all on my necklace & tellin me how you want your kisses, anything you want you get it I'm granting all your wishes, you have been loyal from the beginning that's the way I want to end it. We never keep no secrets that's the way I want to keep it, tha tha that's my bestfriend that my bestfriend, We never keep no secrets that's the way I want to keep it, that's my bestfriend, that's my bestfriend. We say we just bestfriends but it feels so different, she was there from the beginning way before a nigga started winning, all them other girls who loved me she was the only who didn't. All these hugs & kisses man I swear we too committed, We say we just bestfriends but it feels so different, she was there from the beginning way before a nigga started winning, all them other girls who loved me she was the only who didn't.All these hugs & kisses man I swear we too committed, that's my bestfriend hugs & kisses to my bestfriend X3 That's my best friend she the only one who ain't left me that's my bestfriend hugs & kisses to my bestfriend.
