No Reason To Cry

Judy Torres

There's no reason for you to cry
My love, I'll always be around
So dry your tears my love
I'm here now, always, foreverHappiness between you and me
Will last forever just you wait and see
I will prove to you, sweet love, the things I say
Come straight from the heartAlways be the way I promise
That I will always stay
I'll grant you a wish that will come true
'Cause darling, it was meant for youThere's no reason for you to cry, my love
'Cause I'll always be around
So dry your tears my love I'm here
Always standing by your sideThere's no reason for you to cry, my love
'Cause I'll always be around
So dry your tears my love I'm here
Always standing by your sideYour sobs have got me so confused
That your love I did refuse
Forgive me baby, I regret it
'Cause your love was always trueCaring for you till the end of time
As each day passes by
You showed me the things that I never knew
You showed me how to love like you, soThere's no reason for you to cry, my love
'Cause I'll always be around
So dry your tears my love I'm here
Always standing by your sideThere's no reason for you to cry, my love
'Cause I'll always be around
So dry your tears my love I'm here
Always standing by your sideThere's no reason for you to cry, my love
'Cause I'll always be around
So dry your tears my love I'm here
Always standing by your sideThere's no reason for you to cry, my love
'Cause I'll always be around
So dry your tears my love I'm here
Always standing by your sideWe'll be together forever more
Always till the day I die
Let's just start as friends
So we can live to understandIf only you could see beyond my faults
You would never wonder why
I look at you and I see

That you are my guiding lightThere's a reason, my love
I'll aways be around
Always standing by your side
There's a reason
I say, no reason to cry
I'm always standing by your sideThere's no reason for you to cry
My love, I'll always be around
Dry your tears my love
I'm here now, always, forever
