

A Touch of Blessing

Evergrey

Climbing walls of an endless circle
Walking paths you never heard of
Struggling in an endless battle
Searching far for a higher purpose Drowning in betrayal's river
The freezing cold will make you shiver
Join the world of greater learning
Crown me king and be my servants Mislead by beauty, one you rarely find
So loving and friendly, it's one of a kind
Their arms wide open, willing to take me in
No doubts in choosing a world free from sin All the dreams I had, all my future wishes
Put aside for a greater journey
All the things I planned, left my friends so coldly
Put aside for a higher Mislead by beauty, one you rarely find
So loving and friendly, it's one of a kind
A single army, a united one
A touch of blessing which cannot be undone Drowning in betrayal's river
The freezing cold will make you shiver
Join the world of greater learning
Crown me king and be my servants All the dreams I had, all my future wishes
Put aside for a greater journey
All the things I planned, left my friends so coldly
Put aside for a higher purpose All the dreams I had, all my future wishes
Put aside for a greater journey
All the things I planned, left my friends so coldly
Put aside for a higher All the dreams I had, all my future wishes
Put aside for a greater journey
All the things I planned, left my friends so coldly
Put aside for a higher purpose
