Mario

Ohhhhhh

Woahhhh

Baby, Why you crawling begging on the floor

Lady, You had it oh don't let it slip away

Ooh yea

I gave you every part of me, thought forever we would be, but i guess i was wrong girl
You took chance at romance with another man, and now you want me to change my plans with you

Guess you learned your lesson cuz you calling me stressing

Leaving..... messages saying you want me

I see you coming back for more

Now you begging for

For me to put it on you like before

And if you coming back again

No more arguing

Before I decide to let you in

Tell me

Baby, do you taste the difference

Taste the difference

Taste the

Taste the

Taste the

Baby, do you taste the difference

Taste the difference

Taste the

Taste the

Taste the

Baby, do ya

It's looking like I had the last laugh

Ooh Yea
