

First Love

Attrition

My first love is belief in
The castles that I'm building
God, I'm glad to see you
Storming my cathedralRemember me?
Remember meMy second is a scene
From Baudelaire's ravine
I emptied my oasis
Into deserts full of dreams
Remember me?
Remember meMy third is growing wild
In the gardens of our mind
I'd pick up roses silently
And hand them to a child
Remember me?
Remember meRemember me?
Remember me
