

Escaping Alcatraz

Monks of Mellonwah

You'll rust in here, or fly away
The days come and go again
These hallowed walls, their shadow falls
The sun is meek he lets us wash away can you hear me say Don't let me wash away Speculate, infiltrate, Storm the gate, recreate this escape tonight
The moon is brightening the darkness
Emancipate, operate, a dying state, clean the slate for all our time
Let your soul breathe in the air
Don't let me wash away
