Time Is Gone

The BellRays

(verse 1)
Look at him, look at him!
Is that what they say,
When I walk by baby,
Eyes meet in a haze?
Lie to me, lie to me
Tell me it's true,
Because, I still want you
Look at her, look at her!
Is what I whisper as you walk by baby, beautiful and pure.
Sing to me, sing to me!
You know that I will!
Do you love me still?(prechorus)
Nothing me and nothing you,
We're just watching it fall through.
Taking time, but time is gone.
So I'll leave you with a song.(chorus)
I'll run away.
Please come with me.
I've always wanted you to see.
If you and me,
could somehow be.
there'd be nothing else I'd ever need.
Keep fighting, keep riding on!(verse 2)
All of it, all of it,
and a little more hey,
I want it all little lady,
I like the way you play.
Lie to me, lie to me,
Tell me you do!
Because, I must have you.
Beautiful, beautiful,
listen to me!
The drugs are gone baby,
I can see clearly!
Lie to you, lie to you,
Never again.
So just, just take my hand!(pre-chorus)(chorus)(guitar solo)(pre-chorus)(guitar solo 2)(chorus)
