J.G. Thirlwell

Night all alone
(Sit all alone)
The same as the last
(Sit all alone)
The lonely man cries
(Sit all alone)
of present and past
Though many he's known
(Searching for love)
To lay on his bed
(Searching for love)
The message received
(Searching for love)
By his heart and his head
He searches today
(Looking for you)
Below the blue moon
(Looking for you)
Until he finds the one
(Looking for you)
Who can hear the same tune
(Looking for you)

Now it drifts through his mind as he walks by
The boats are in their docks under a clear blue sky
He doesn't feel the heat, he doesn't feel the time go by
All he feels is emptiness from the inside
