

The Real Me

Anita Wilson

My heart is open
Defenses are down
I need to hear a word from You
    Speak to me
    You know the real me
The one that people cannot see
    I surrender my will to You
    Use me as you please
No longer will I hide from You
    I worship in spirit and in truth
    Even when I'm far from you
You still allow me in this moment here with You,
