

Vermillion - &ME Remix

Damian Lazarus

I know you've been here so long you're really starting to get down
So much you wanted to hide yourself from being found
Crouch down on the desert floor if you're as plastered to the ground You're used to being all by yourself and safe and soundmmm... I know you've heard it before but soon the sun is gonna rise
You thought you were gonna die before blood orange skies (woah no)
So sick of moving your body to a well polished life
Well, I got something to move ya, move ya-hah
Holding on, to what's gone
Glance at the horizon, you're in your.
Vermillion, vermillion, vermillion, vermillion, oohhh
Bathe on your back, the scarlet washes away scars
And lets your darkness disappear beneath the stars
Follow the hollow inside you deciding who you are
The sky is nearing vermillion, with nod to fire
Holding on, to what's gone
Glance at the horizon
You're in your.
Vermillion, vermillion, vermillion, vermillion, oohhh
Holding on, to what's gone
Glance at the horizon, you're in your.
Vermillion, vermillion, vermillion, vermillion, oohhh
