

You Are What You Take

The Leisure Society

A man of the crowd again
Riding the rushes in
Lifted unveiled
All this for sale
We're unsteady but alive
In the heaven of a reckless night Waking the walls shift
Brewed in the artifice
Without, within
Flood me again
Serve me severed from the earth
Interstellar, on a perfect curve
Just leave me out on a limb
Pale as the day, bored as the rain
How high the answers
Laid us to waste
You are what you take Here's where the buck stops
Beautifully ruinous
Lust lies awake
You are what you take
Hold me heavy in your arms
Armageddon in a racing heart
Just leave me out on a limb
Pale as the day, bored as the rain
How high the answers
Laid us to waste
You are what you take to take of
