

Sun To Me

Faithless

So in future lifetimes
It's a certainty
That we'll again
Fit together perfectlySo in, in future lifetimes
It's a certainty
That we'll again
Fit together perfectlyYou're the sun to me
You're the sun to me
You're the sun to meYou're the sun to me
You're the sun to me
You're the sun to meI stumbled into you accidentally
And yet feels as though you were sent to me
That we were meant to be together
And grow with each other
Through the centuriesIf my body was your mirror
You'd be able to see exactly
What it is about you
That I'm addicted toHelplessly you distract me
Like a mountain view
Of rivers crashing into the sea
StrangelyYou all seem familiar to me
Would so, love tie us together
Through eternitySo in future lifetimes
It's a certainty
We will again
Fit together perfectlyYou're the sun to me
You're the sun to meSo in future lifetimes
It's a certainty
We will again
Fit together perfectlyYou're the sun to me
You're the sun to meIf my body was your mirror
You'd be able to see exactly
What it is about you that makes me shiver
You give me a soul fever
And I achieve a new level of graceSo in future lifetimes
It's a certainty
We will again
Fit together perfectlyPerfectly, perfectly
Perfectly, perfectly

Perfectly You're the sun to me
You're the sun to me We do it so fervently
We do it so fervently
With your urgency
We do it so fervently You're the sun to me
You're the sun to me
You're the sun to me
You're the sun to me You're the sun to me
You're the sun to me
You're the sun to me
You're the sun to me
