

Beautiful Design

Rebecca Ferguson

Ooooo

Yeahhh

Ooooo

YeahhhIf I gave it all up

What would I lose

If I gave my life

Gave it to youIf you could see my faults

Would you forget them all

Would you carry them all

Would you carry them allIf trust is the key

Then your love is the answer

Should I let it all go

Just believe

And let the sun shine through your mind

Let the sun shine through your mindWhat a beautiful decision

What a beautiful design

When you take no love but its given

There's no bare to hide

No bare to hideThrough all of my pain

Watched me wait on through

So I picked it all up

And gave it to youCause I wasn't strong

I didn't have to be

You held all my promises

All that I needCause trust is the key

Then your love is the answer

When you let it all go

Just believe

And let the sun shine through your mind

Let the sun shine through your mindWhat a beautiful decision

What a beautiful design

When you take no love but its given

There's no bare to hide

No bare to hideWe are golden

We'll be fine

I found the way through to you

Just give me some timeWhat a beautiful decision

What a beautiful design

When you take no love but its given

There's no bare to hide
No bare to hide What a beautiful decision
What a beautiful design
When you take no love but its given
There's no bare to hide
No bare to hide
