

The Follow Through

Blue October

Pride... it leaves you hollow another attempt
just to settle the score a war, you know the one you built it up it's real defining humiliation
Oh it knocks at your door (at your door Ohh) When you say i blow up i say you cave in
we never found the line between the real and pretend
you know you should accept it
this is really the end
i know for sure, it's what i have to do is follow through And you were everything i'll ever want to be the only one i ever need to know i'd wait for you til time lay down to sleep and i'd sneak across the world to let her know yeah that's what i do Yeah i follow through oh i follow through Oh and here i stand Yeah i'm too close but still you're far away you never tried but i did And we still remain divided oh i can't believe that your heart's still beating its beating for me at all how sad of you, Oh but I'm not, but i'm not sad at all When you say i blow up
i say you cave in
the real and pretend
you know you should accept it
this is really the end
is follow through and you were everything i ever want to be the only one i ever need to know
i'd wait for you till time lay down to sleep
Yeah and i'd sneak across the world to let her know Yeah and as it falls down into night we run away
And once again divided but each one knows just what we have to do we do
we have to... follow through i will lay down my heart i will let you go that's what's best for us all(cause now we stand beneath the clouds and God above) (like we did before) (but this time for her) (i'll follow through)You're everything i ever want to be the only thing i ever need to know

i'd wait for you till time lay down to sleep and i'd sneak across the world to let her knowhold my heart patiently
And take my hand
Yeah walk with me
cuz when the evening comes we'll set the world on fire
And i was wrong
let me help you live on..
And you were everything I ever want to be
The only one I ever need to know
I'd wait for you til time lay down to sleep
Yeah And I'd sneak across the world to let her knowYeah and as it falls down into night we run away
we do
we have to...follow through(hold my heart
patiently
And take my hand
Yeah walk with me)
cuz when the evening comes
And i was wrong
let me help you live on...
