Snail

Do As Infinity

All your seven dreams

Look close, son, and you'll believe

As your things come undone

See you are the only one

Flower, seize the hour I did

I wait

Waiting, waiting for your wake

I'll wait

When you wake up, you're all weak

Throwing your life away

Someday, sorry coming home

Sorry snail, what you wait for

Flower, the pain will wash away

Away

When the sun shines, climbs through your window
Into your bed
When you wake up you're all weak
Throwing your life away
Someday, sorry coming home
Sorry snail, down in my heart
Flower save the hours
Flower away
What you wait for
Flower chase the sunshine
Flower chase the sunshine
Flower
