Kiro TV

Sneaker Pimps

Okay, you had sedatives and cold champagne
They say, "That must be the price of fame"
It's not a joke if you can chocke on the thought of it
You're not my friend to defend if you're loving it
So Kurt I heard that you squeezed somebody's hand
It doesn't hurt if you think about your fansKiro TV, they've got their visions again
Like it's oxygen
Kiro TV, they've got their visions again
Want your heroes dead(So high, if you think of the fans)
(So high, if you think of the fans)Okay, they've got your file down at the C.I.A.
They say, "You're worse than Manson for the U.S.A."
It's not grief if you can see, through the source of it
It's only true if you're bruised by the force of it
So Kurt I heard that you opened up your eyes
They call it work but it don't make it civilizedKiro TV, they've got their visions again
Like it's oxygen
Kiro TV, they've got their visions again
Like it's oxygenKiro TV, they've got their visions again
Like it's oxygen
Kiro TV, they've got their visions again
Want your heroes dead, your heroes deadOkay, so time takes your cigarette
They say, "It puts it in your mouth then you'll forget"
No longer "Live 105", can you hear me?
The life expectancy of any popularity
So Kurt I heard that the side show bet your life
It doesn't hurt at the worst go never mindKiro TV, they've got their visions again
Like it's oxygen
Kiro TV, they've got their visions again
Like it's oxygenKiro TV, they've got their visions again
Like it's oxygen
Kiro TV, they've got their visions again
Want your heroes deadKiro TV
Kiro TV, they've got their visions again
Want your heroes dead(So high, if you think of the fans)
(So high, if you think of the fans)
