

"En Gallop"

Joanna Newsom

This place is damp and ghostly
I am already gone
And the halls were lined
With the disembodied
And the dusty wings
Which fell from flesh
Gasplessly And I go
Where the trees go
And I walk
From a higher education
For now and for hire It beats me
But I do not know
And it beats me
But I do not know
It beats me
But I do not know
I do not know Palaces and stormclouds
And the rough, straggly sage, and the smoke
And the way it will all come together
In quietness and in time
And you laws of property
oh you free economy
And you unending afterthoughts
You could've told me before Never get so attached to a poem
You forget truth that lacks lyricism
And never draw so close to the heat
That you forget that you must eat
