

Is This a Dream

Angela Bofill

Is this a dream
Is this what it seems
Is this a dream
Or could this really be love
Is this what I'm feeling
That loving that you're dealing
Is this a dream
Or could this really be love
Could it be love
I've been searching all of my life
To find a love that would feel just right
Then you came to be
You are my destiny
Baby, it was you and me
From the moment I laid eyes on you
I knew no love would ever do
Now I know that I could never let you alone
I love you so
Is this a dream
Is this what it seems
Is this a dream
Or could this really be love
Could it be love
Oh, could it
Could it be I've got stars in my eyes
Or is this my true lover in disguise
I don't want to wake up from this fantasy
The two of us eternally now
I feel like I am flying
Got to get back on the ground
How my world's completely changed
Since you've been around
Is this a dream (tell me that I'm dreaming)
Is this what it seems (ohh, it can't be real)
Is this a dream
Or could this really be love
Could it be love
Is this what I'm feeling
That loving that you're dealing
Is this a dream
Or could this really be love
I've been waiting for a long time
To find someone like you
And I hope it's not the wrong time
To say how I love you
