Simplest Mistake

Seether

Watch it blow my mind, it's something
I am ill prepared to remedy
But let it slow the time, it takes to die
And close your eyes to your enemy, defySelf-made millionaires won't take ideas
From all the little plebeians
Just suffocate with smiles and force fed lies
And close your mind to reality, denyIt feels like I'm losing again when I've lost
Everything, I'm sure I will see more clearly
Lose what I'm feeling to them and not feeling
Anything, I'm sure I will bleed sincerely tonightWatch it blow my mind, it's something
I am ill prepared to remedy
But let it slow the time, it takes to die
And close your eyes to your enemy, defyIt feels like I'm losing again when I've lost
Everything, I'm sure I will see more clearly
Lose what I'm feeling to them and not feeling
Anything, I'm sure I will bleed sincerely tonightSo, you make the simplest mistake
So, you make the simplest mistake
And fearlessly you deny your involvement
In my demise but give me your open handIt feels like I'm losing again when I've lost
Everything, I'm sure I will see more clearly
Lose what I'm feeling to them and not feeling
Anything, I'm sure I will bleed sincerely tonightFeels like I'm losing again when I've lost
Everything, I'm sure I will see more clearly
Lose what I'm feeling to them and not feeling
Anything, I'm sure I will bleed sincerely tonight
