Keep It

Gravity Co.

Too close too far
Staring at the world before me
Always seems like
Feelings are the things I?m missing
Floating shadows don?t know who I?ll be tomorrow
Going nowhere
Time has stopped things have never changed.

If the things just don?t seem right
The depth?s the secret, could you keep it?
The pleasure will be mine
To see inside
That?s worth keeping
Feelings are the key to your soul
Is this the secret worth keeping?
Feelings are the key to your soul
Is this the secret worth keeping?

Somewhere, out there, you will see that I?m missing
Only lonely roaming through the world around me
Searching so far for someone to help believing
Lights off curtain no emotions heading for me
