

Good Girls

Joe

Baby girl, alright
I gotta find me a girl
Whoa oh
Alright now Sunshine
From the first time that we met
Helpless
You took my heart I must confess
Deep in your eyes
There seemed to be a look that said
Hello, is it me you're searching for Suddenly my sunshine turn to rain
I dunno if it'll ever come back again
That's what you are sunshine and rain
Your eyes didn't say you had a man
That never belonged within your plans
And it hurts so bad
Someone tell me Why are all the good girls, taken every time
And why do I keep falling for
Someone else's dime
Every time I says "hello"
Then they say "goodbye"
So why are all you good girls
Taken every time (Taken every time) Dancing
With your body close to mine
Then you kiss my lips girl
Girl I thought it was a sign
I want you forever
But good intentions never win
I've got that feeling
Tonight I'll be alone again Suddenly my sunshine turned to rain
I dunno if it'll ever come back again
That's what you are sunshine and rain
Your eyes didn't say you had a man
That never belonged within your plans
And it hurts so bad
Someone tell me Why are all the good girls, taken every time
And why do I keep falling for
Someone else's dime
Every time I says "hello"
Then they say "goodbye"

So why are all you good girls
Taken every time Why are all the good girls, taken every time
And why do I keep falling for
Someone else's dime
Every time I says "hello" (Hello)
Then they say "goodbye" (Please baby)
So why are all you good girls (Why)
Taken every time Whoa I gotta believe
There's a Ronny for me
Somewhere in this world
I'm not gonna stop
Gonna search till I drop
'Til I find that girl
I gotta believe
There's a Ronny for me
Somewhere in this world
I'm not gonna stop
Gonna search till I drop
Till I find that girl Why are all the good girls, taken every time
And why do I keep falling for
Someone else's dime
Every time I says "hello"
Then they say "goodbye"
So why are all you good girls
Taken every time Why are all the good girls, taken every time
And why do I keep falling for
Someone else's dime
Every time I says "hello"
Then they say "goodbye"
