Up

A.R. Kane forward ever ascending on a stairway to heaven me and the children and mama make seven my senses take over as we start to float higher and higher on a huge starbound boatforward ever ascending, our head in the clouds i watch as the dolphins tear off all their shrouds your head is a halo, it catches the light as i enter the gates what a glorious sightover and over and over and over, over and over and over we go over and over and over and over higher and higher and higher and higher higher and higher on a big black starliner
