

Still

Daughter

I'll wrap up my bones
And leave them
Out of this home
Out on the roadTwo feet standing on a principle
Two hands longing for each others warmth
Cold smoke seeping out of colder throats
Darkness falling, leaves nowhere to goIt's spiraling down
Biting words like a wolf howling
Hate is spitting out each others mouths
But we're still sleeping like we're loversStill with feet touching
Still with eyes meeting
Still our hands match
Still with hearts beatingStill with feet touching
Still with eyes meeting
Still our hands match
Still with hearts beatingStill with feet touching
Still with eyes meeting
Still our hands match
Still with hearts beatingTwo feet standing on a principle
Two hands digging in each others wounds
Cold smoke seeping out of colder throats
Darkness falling, leaves nowhere to moveIt's spiraling down
Biting words like a wolf howling
Hate is spitting out each others mouths
But we're still sleeping like we're loversStill with feet touching
Still with eyes meeting
Still our hands match
Still with hearts beatingStill with feet touching
Still with eyes meeting
Still our hands match
Still with hearts beatingStill with feet touching
Still with eyes meeting
Still our hands match
Still with hearts beatingI'll wrap up my bones
And leave them
Out of this home
Out on the roadTwo feet standing on a principle
Two hands longing for each others warmth
Cold smoke seeping out of colder throats

Darkness falling, leaves nowhere to go
