

Learning to Fall

Chickenfoot

Oh, lost in a sea of memories
Learning to fly again
Morning comes early, oh
Trying to trust these wings 'Cause when I fall I fall deep
When I crawl I'll come running to you baby
Running to you baby Now I've gotta sort out these dreams
Feels like watching your life on a big screen
And morning comes early again, yeah
Only to find us two as one When I fall I fall deep
When I crawl I'll come running to you
Running to you baby When I fall I fall down deep
When I crawl I'll come running to you
Running to you baby 'Cause I'm falling in circles, oh yeah
I'm falling down on my knees Once as a child in my mother's eyes
Oh Lord, I swear it felt this way, yeah When I fall I fall deep, oh yeah
When I crawl I'll come running to you
Running to you baby When I fall Lord I fall, I fall, I fall down deep
When I crawl I'll come running to you
Running to you baby, baby, baby Lord I fall, I fall down deep
When I crawl I'll come running, I'll come running
I'll come running back to you baby, baby, baby
