On and On

Estelle

On and On lyricsPretty girl dont even knows shes beautiful, ugly inside, gettin high is the usual wastin her time too high to open her eyes and now shes caught up in the light she cries at night/hums along to every song on the radio just as pretty as any mother in her video Hard to get on unless youre wearing a thong while youre on it still goes on and on and oohh this this is for my people who struggling makin something outa of nothing aint it real when theres bills to pay just the same thing on and on
All my little girls round the world hold your head up just be strong just be strong and all the little boys who can write you be strong keep your eyes
Look at him he channelin like pop star change everything he has to cover up the scars milk in his brain cause thats what it takes till he cant recognize his own face help his case hell pretend hell even call you a friend like he couldnt care less like a confectionite skin but the feelin is strong like he just dont belong and it still it goes on and on
This is for my people whoa re stugglin makin something outa nothing aint it real when theres bills to pay its the same thing goin on and on everyday all my little girls round the world hold your head up just be strong and all the little boys you can write you be strong keep your eyes from the streetwalke on and on and on
On and on oooh on an on
Oh oh oh oh oh oh oooooh
To all my little girls round the world hold your head up high just be strong and you gotta keep holdin on and all the little boys who can rhyme you be strong just be strong keep your eyes
And all my little girls round the world hold your head high just be strong all the little boys who can rhyme you e strong keep your eyes
On and on and on and on
Ooh ooh on and on keep it focused
On and on and on and
Ooh ohh on and on and onJust stay focused
