

Without Fear

Amon Amarth

I see, without fear my destiny
As the raging skies begins to fade
Pouring rain licks my wounds
As my blood flows from my torn flesh! As I die I hold my sword
My only friend and pray that
Oden will take me home The battle rages but I hear only raindrops falling
Like in slow motion to the ground
Death release me free me from my earthly pain
Oden I ask thee please, take me home As I look to the sky the heaven is lit
And Valkyries in shining Armour
Descend I rest my head on the ground
And close my eyes and I know that
Oden's sent for me as I die Without fear I die I hold my sword
And die without fear
