

Moon At Dawn

Blind Pilot

Are you quiet as your name
On the day before it came?
Are you in the meaning
That it sang in me with its sound?
Oh oh what name are you saying now? Every dream stuck in my mouth
Talking north and talking south
You said you believed me
As the sun will rise without a doubt
Oh oh are you believing me now? Oh oh you are a color now I keep with the dawn
Oh oh I'm gonna keep it right until it is gone
Oh oh you are a color now I keep with the dawn Oh oh oh
Is the creek where you first swam
Bending all your breaths to sand?
If I looked in its mirror
Washing over me bending me down? Oh oh you are a color now I keep with the dawn
Oh oh it's gonna get me back where I belong
Oh oh you are a color now I keep with the dawn
Oh oh you are a color now I keep with the dawn Oh oh oh oh
