Take Me By the Hand

Lisa Miskovsky

I was lost, a new beginning
I could hear, the bells were ringing
Waiting, was waitingThe summer was gone, the roads where crowded
The sky was Grey, the sun was clouded
Changing, I was changingTime was just a word
I never said that I was smart or clever, you saidCome and take me by the hand
If only for a little while, I only wanna make you smileSuddenly my heart was aching
I could feel the ice all breaking
Smiling, I was smilingThe birds were singing hallelujah
But you dont really listen like you used to Cause now youre used toNow, when every song has faded
Feeling blue, youre feeling jaded, lostCome and take me by the hand
If only for a little while, I only wanna make you smile
