

Trouble (The Line of Best Fit Session)

Neon Jungle

1, 2, 3, let's go
Trouble

I don't look for trouble, but trouble looks for me
And it's been waiting around corners since I was seventeen
They say "Here comes a hurricane, trouble is her middle name!"
But I don't look for trouble, yeah, trouble looks for me

Hey, hey!

I just wanna live a quiet life
I'll make an excellent wife
Man, I swear I really try
But some boys, they just can't eat it whole
Trouble is my name, you know
(Trouble is my name, you know)

I don't look for trouble, but trouble looks for me
And it's been waiting around corners since I was seventeen
They say "Here comes a hurricane, trouble is her middle name!"
But I don't look for trouble, yeah, trouble looks for me

Hey, hey!

I don't look for trouble, but trouble looks for me
And it's been waiting around corners since I was seventeen
They say that you got so many sides, (f*ck it) I'm a Gemini
But I don't look for trouble, trouble looks for me

Lights up, let's have a toké
Pour more whiskey in my Coke
Never been one of the herd
Flipping everyone the bird

People say that I am heartless
I've just learned to use my heart less
I go hard 'cause I'm the hardest

And we ain't even started yet!

I don't look for trouble, but trouble looks for me
And it's been waiting around corners since I was seventeen
They say "Here comes a hurricane, trouble is her middle name!"
But I don't look for trouble, trouble looks for me

I don't look for trouble, but trouble looks for me
And it's been waiting around corners since I was seventeen
They say "Here comes a hurricane, trouble is her middle name!"
But I don't look for trouble, trouble looks for me

I don't look for trouble, but trouble looks for me
And it's been waiting around corners since I was seventeen
They say "Here comes a hurricane, trouble is her middle name!"
But I don't look for trouble, trouble looks for me

Lights up, let's have a toke
Pour more whiskey in my Coke
Never been one of the herd
Flipping everyone the bird

Lights up, let's have a toke
Pour more whiskey in my Coke
Never been one of the herd
Flipping everyone the bird
