

Save You Again

Mi Casa

It's the truth right here, everybody gather around! So you thought you weren't enough
That He was asking way too much, and he proved you wrong, he proved you wrong
All it takes is a bit of faith, nothing much is all it takes to stand strong, for you to stand strong
In the start, it was hard for me, but I was far too blind to see it's all paid, the price He paid So go on you little soldier, and go on, do it just like I showed ya and lift your hands, and look to Him 'Cause He will save save save you again

Yes, He will save save save you again
'Cause He will save save save you again
'Cause He will save save save you again
It's not about what you have done

Rather what He's done through His Son, you need to see, you need to see
Open up now both your eyes and realise His great surprise in His name, it's in His name
Part of a chosen generation,
Got what it takes to lead a nation

Just believe, just believe So go on you little soldier, throw it on, do it like I showed ya, lift your hands, look to him 'Cause he will save save save you again (you better believe!)

'Cause he will save save save you again (He will save you if you want Him to!)
'Cause he will save save save you again (come on believe! Believe! Lift your voices!)
'Cause he will save save save you again (come and ask him to!)
'Cause He will save save save you again (you better believe!)

Yes, He will save save save you again (He will, He will He will save you! Just ask Him to!)

'Cause He will save save save you again
'Cause He will save save save you again (Ain't nobody, ain't nobody, ain't nobody like Jesus!) Singing ain't nobody, ain't nobody, ain't nobody like Jesus!
Ain't nobody, Ain't nobody, Ain't nobody like Jesus!
