Judgement Days

Capdown

i'm disbelieving again disruption to confort is all i can see as you get up
don't wake up just stay stuck in your short-sighted mind genocide didn't end in '45 cos now you're leaving them all to die and i'm disbelieving againit seems that those who arnt your friends deserve a bullet in the head it seems that those who aren't your friends are suspectshow can it be a short strech of sea can loose us all concept of humanity and help us all become a 'bigoted bunch of thugs'! whay can't you see?
we're all human beings and our lives shouldn't be determined by our nationalityi hope you understand these people already lost their lives and i hope they're never judging us the way we're judgeing them then it'll be them whose denying us life
